Entertainment Extra by Evelyn

Q. Could you please tell me where Yves St. Laurent was born and how old he is? In addition, what other activities does he have besides dressmaking? Gina C.

A. Yves was born on August 1st 1936 in Oran, Algeria. Alongside his activity as a dressmaker, Yves continues to work in the theater, designing stage settings and costumes for ballets, shows and plays. He also contributes to a number of films.

Q. Whatever happened to Bobby Benson? I haven't heard much of the actor since his major heart surgery. Regina B.

A. Bobby has just written, produced and directed a motion picture titled "Modern Love," and this picture will be released next month. The flick, has much big names as Karla DeVito (his wife), Burt Reynolds, Rue McClanahan, Kaye Ballard, Lonnie Lasser and Frankie Valli all involved in this highly anticipated picture.

Q. Is Andrew Lloyd Webber still going to do a movie version of his hit Broadway show, "Phantom of the Opera?" Kay Z.

A. Yes. Webber has Joel Schumacher as director and the current rumor stars of the Broadway show, recreating their roles for the big screen. Stay tuned!

Q. Is it true that Sydney Biddle Barrows has written a new book about etiquette? Rick E.

A. Yes, however, it is a version of etiquette that would have Miss Manners blushing. Sydney's new book is titled "Mayflower Manners: Etiquette for Consenting Adults." The book, which is published by Doubleday for $14.95, bombards and Discipline party to what to do when a dinner guest has AIDS.

Q. It seems to me that Debbie Morgan's role of Dr. Angela Hubbard on "All My Children," has gone static. Is there anything exciting ahead for this character on the show? Iris P.

A. The role of Angie is going to spice up on "AMC" as the character and her mother on the show will be dating the same man. However, Ms. Morgan will be leaving the show. Morgan, who recently wed and had been seen on several nighttime television projects, created the role in 1982. The role in being recast as of this writing.

Q. Who is going to be replacing James Depaiva as Max on "One Life To Live?" Ronnie P.

A. Nicholas Walker is going to be the new Max on the ABC soapie. Walker, if you remember, was Congressman Samuel Clegg on "Capitol," and most recently was the devious Jimmy on "General Hospital."

Weekly HEALTH TIP
VOLUNTEERS
Volunteers get a "helper's high" from their work. It's a euphoric feeling and probably has a biochemical component.
In a survey by Better Homes and Gardens of people doing volunteer work and other forms of helping, most respondents report that a good feeling comes over them when they engage in helping others - feeling warm, less depressed", or feeling a greater sense of "self-worth."
Volunteering is healthful for both giver and receiver.
